

Table 3. Comparison of monthly precipitation amount for May 2019 with available data series.

| Main meteorological station | Data availability (years) | Multi-annual average* (mm) | Highest monthly precipitation amount in available data series (mm) | Monthly precipitation amount (mm) for May 2019 |
|-----------------------------|---------------------------|----------------------------|--|--|
| Varaždin                    | 1949                      | 81.0                       | 185.8 1954.  | 209.1                                   |
| Krapina*                    | 1993                      | 90.4                       | 165.9 1999.  | 196.7                                   |
| Bilogora                    | 1981                      | 79.0                       | 183.6 2014.  | 189.9                                   |
| Daruvar                     | 1978                      | 87.9                       | 206.3 1989.  | 240.3                                   |
| Sisak                       | 1949                      | 86.4                       | 198.6 1991.  | 247.0                                   |
| Ogulin                      | 1949                      | 123.8                      | 294.0 1991.  | 319.2                                   |
| Rijeka                      | 1948                      | 103.8                      | 275.7 2007.  | 287.7                                   |
| Pazin                       | 1961                      | 87.5                       | 191.6 1972.  | 295.1                                   |
| Zavižan*                    | 1953                      | 153.0                      | 325.7 1984   | 376.0                                   |
| Zadar                       | 1961                      | 63.6                       | 175.3 1998.  | 176.7                                   |

*Incomplete data series